St. Vincent Martyr School Offers Tours on Tuesdays

Madison, NJ — April 24, 2018 — St. Vincent Martyr School in Madison, NJ is offering Tours on Tuesdays throughout May for families seeking education for their children in Preschool, Kindergarten and First Grade. Admissions Director Mary Brooks will be conducting the tours between 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. on May 1, 8, 15, 22, 29.

“St. Vincent Martyr School teaches the whole child, encouraging academic, social, emotional and spiritual growth,” said Sr. Noreen Holly, SC, Principal. “We provide a warm and loving environment in which children realize that school is a fun and happy place,” she continued.

The school provides a co-ed Catholic education to students in preschool through 8th grade. It has a stated goal of helping “children become confident, inquisitive, independent learners in a nurturing environment.”

Established in 1848, St. Vincent Martyr School is New Jersey’s oldest Catholic elementary school. While embracing its longevity and traditions, it has adapted to keep pace the needs of its students. The school completed a $2 million renovation in 2016, adding 6,000 square feet of space to accommodate its burgeoning middle school and make major improvements throughout the building.

“The school offers flexibility with all activities to allow for individual differences among children, yet sets a predictable & structured routine so each child feels secure. Students not only develop their intellectual & cognitive abilities, but also build the important classroom skills which provide the foundation for a lifetime of learning and achievement,” said Sr. Noreen.
