Wee Wednesdays Announced at St. Vincent Martyr School

Madison, NJ — October 9, 2018 — Toddlers and the caregivers are invited to enjoy free events sponsored by St. Vincent Martyr School. This series of events, known as “Wee Wednesdays” offers an opportunity for toddlers and their caregivers to get out and experience unique entertainment with other local families.

The first event, “Jump for Joy,” was held on Wednesday, October 10 at Destination Jump, an indoor jump arena in Whippany, NJ.

All other events will be held on-site at St. Vincent Martyr School at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesdays in October. Scheduled events include Mother Goose Magic on October 17, which features “Mother Goose” performing magic tricks based upon popular nursery rhymes. On October 24, toddlers and their caregivers may pop into SVMS for a “Super Bubble Fun Time,” during which the bubbleologist will enchant the audience with amazing bubble tricks. The final October event will feature Halloween STEM crafts, which will capture the imaginations of the young visitors who will learn as they have fun.

All of the events are free. However, space is limited and event registration is required. Please visit the school’s website to register online at <https://www.svmsnj.org>.

St.Vincent Martyr School is a Catholic co-ed school for students in PreK - 8th grade and welcomes students from all faiths. Admissions Director Mary Brooks will be available to answer questions or provide tours of the school following the events.
